Healthcare Sunday. This Sunday is the annual opportunity for our church to acknowledge, affirm and support the work done by members of our congregation and local community who work in health and social care. Our congregation and community has doctors, nurses, care assistants, social workers, social care workers, occupational therapists, hospital administrators, porters, cleaners, ward secretaries, laboratory staff, chaplains, and many in other roles. This year it is even more appropriate than normal that we should pray for them.

Annual Parochial Church Meeting (APCM).

Thank you to all those who attended the ACPM last Sunday. The following people will now serve on the PCC for the coming year. The church wardens, Trevor Dimmock, Chris and Mary Hartley, Jean Hood, Dr Kranthi Jonnalagadda, Wendy Norris and Peter Sharman and the Deanery Synod reps Sheila Ewen and Diana Lord.

Remembrance Sunday 8th November

We are likely to have to restrict numbers entering the church for our Remembrance Sunday service. The PCC has reluctantly agreed to admit to the service only those who have intimated their intention to attend. Please notify a churchwarden if you plan to attend the service which will start at the normal time of 10:30.

Our new priest in charge. Rev Isaac Pain will be moving to Cranfield with his family some time in November. He will be licenced in the church on 7th December 2020.

Prayers for

All those currently under tighter Tier 3 lockdown restrictions.

All those who have lost their jobs due to the pandemic.

All those working in healthcare.

Give thanks for our new priest in charge.
