Education Sunday

For well over one hundred years there has been an annual recognition of Education Sunday in England and Wales. It is a national day of prayer and celebration for everyone in the world of education. It is celebrated on the second Sunday in September to coincide with the start of the school year.

Welcome back

We welcome back Rev Ray Porter to lead our worship today. He was Director on World Mission Studies at Oak Hill College for many years where he still lectures. He claims to be retired!

Church opening

Although the government has re-introduced some restrictions on the number of people that can meet together this does NOT apply to public worship. We can be grateful that the Government has heard the Church's pleas that public worship is not a social gathering, but, as the Archbishop of Canterbury has tweeted, "the work of God, giving the strength to love and serve."

Prayers for

All those involved with education including students, teachers and administrators.

Our vacancy as we move forward to identifying the person the Lord has chosen to lead us.

Our government as it tries to find the right way to tackle the pandemic.

Motto text

Cast all your anxiety on him
because he cares for you
1 Peter 5:7
