The Second Sunday of Easter

Readings

Exodus 1
John 20:19-31

Collect

Almighty Father, you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification:
grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth;
through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Rev. Philip Young

Welcome and thank-you to Philip Young taking our service this morning, and beginning our new series through the beginning chapters of Exodus.

3-2-1 Course

For four weeks from 13th April, we're running a course on Zoom especially for non-Christians to explore the Christian faith. You would be very welcome to join us!

Sunday Kids Group - Volunteers

We're hoping to get our Sunday Kids Group up and running as soon as government restrictions allow. Would you consider joining a team of volunteers to serve the church in this extremely valuable ministry? Please speak to Isaac or Rebekah.

Prayers

For our persecuted family living in: Central African Republic.

Ask God to protect Christians and all innocent civilians, especially church leaders who are a particular target of Islamist militants.

For our neighbours living in: Church Walk and College Road.

That they would come to know for themselves the love, mercy, and forgiveness of God.

For the ministry of: Tear Fund

Pray for the work of Tear Fund and their partner churches across the 50 poorest countries, as they seek to tackle poverty and injustice across the globe.

For ourselves: 2 Thessalonians 2:16-17

“May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word.”
