The Eighth Sunday After Trinity

Readings

2 Samuel 11:1-15

John 7:1-36

Collect

Almighty Lord and everlasting God, we beseech you to direct, sanctify and govern both our hearts and bodies in the ways of your laws and the works of your commandments; that through your most mighty protection, both here and ever, we may be preserved in body and soul; through our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sermon Notes – John 7:1-36

Have you considered Jesus' words?

Consider where they come from.

Consider what they lead to.

Notices

Present COVID Guidance

From this Sunday we will be opening up the middle pews for more people to sit in, however the chairs around the outside and on the balcony will remain spaced apart. Please wear masks when entering and exiting church building, but they are no longer compulsory when seated. We will also be singing together from today.

Joyce Shrubbs

Joyce Shrubbs' funeral will be at church on 27th July at 2:30pm, including a Spitfire flypast at 4pm.

Music Morning

The Music and Coffee Morning is this coming Saturday 31st July. If you are able to provide any cakes please let Isaac know.

Prayers

For our persecuted family living in: Myanmar

Pray that persecuted Christians held within displaced person camps would be given strength to endure their hardships, and that military and complicit government leaders would turn in horror from their atrocities.

For our neighbours living in: Millards Close and Millards Place

That they would come to know for themselves the love, mercy, and forgiveness of God.

For those in particular need:

Jean Sampson, Jim Ewen, Pearl Cartmill, Dennis Howe, Julia Cox, and Sheila Francis.
