Welcome

We welcome everyone to our service today and in particular Rev Peter Ackroyd who will celebrate Holy Communion. Peter is well known to us and has been the Vicar of St Mary's Wootton since 2002.

Notices

Please note that The Annual Parochial Church Meeting will be held at 11.30am immediately after today's service. This is an important meeting where PCC members are elected for the ensuing year and various reports including the Annual Financial Report are presented to inform our church family of the activities undertaken during the past year. Do try to attend.

Remembrance Sunday 8th November

We are likely to have to restrict numbers entering the church for our Remembrance Sunday service. The PCC has reluctantly agreed to admit to the service only those who have intimated their intention to attend. Please notify a churchwarden if you plan to attend the service.

Collect for the day

Almighty and everlasting God, increase in us your gift of faith that, forsaking what lies behind and reaching out to that which is before, we may run the way of your commandments
and win the crown of everlasting joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and forever.

In our prayers

Today's APCM as we give thanks for the many works undertaken by our PCC, churchwardens and church family during the past year.

Rev Isaac Pain as he and his family make preparations to move to this Parish.

Those suffering with Covid 19 and those who are fearful of contracting the virus.

Our Prime Minister and government as they make difficult decisions affecting the wellbeing of so many.

Motto text

Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.
